KIPP continues to invest in both strategic and tactical enhancements of their IT operations through investments in people, process, and technology aligned with ensuring students and staff have reliable, resilient, and robust connectivity that is aligned to curricular goals and student achievement outcomes.

KIPP is focused on maintaining a proactive approach when it comes to procurement, installation, maintenance, and monitoring of their IT infrastructure. KNOS has undertaken strategic risk assessment efforts to define and serve as a guiding framework for these investments, and is adding senior staff, technology, and process to better support both staff and student populations.

In particular, KIPP is focused on ensuring that each campus has sufficient connectivity, resilience, and visibility.

Enhancements at the network level will include replacement of aging, legacy equipment, as well as networked video cameras to support school safety and operations teams. Processes around help desk and remote administration will help ensure our technology teams are operating efficiently, and security enhancements involving both cloud services and local workstations and servers will harden our infrastructure against evolving threats.
