Grade 2: Bayou Bridges Translated Letters to the Family

To enhance communication between schools and families, Bayou Bridges: A K–8 Social Studies Curriculum now offers Letters to the Family in French, Spanish, and Vietnamese. These letters inform families about the topics students are learning and encourage meaningful conversations at home, acknowledging that families are often the best resource for helping students connect classroom learning to their own experiences. Teachers should use the translated letters instead of the English version in the Teacher Guide for multilingual learners whose home language is French, Spanish, or Vietnamese.
