Land of Liberty Summer Professional Learning

Overview

To support the initial implementation of Land of Liberty: The History of the United States, the LDOE is hosting in-person, regional professional learning opportunities this summer at no registration cost to systems.

Why?

This half-day workshop will provide curriculum-based opportunities to

- identify and utilize the design principles and key components of Land of Liberty,
- annotate and adapt Land of Liberty lessons utilizing the Lesson Study Protocol, and
- build capacity to plan and utilize the performance task.

Who?

This opportunity is open to system and school leaders, as well as to any formal, community-based, or pre-service K-12 social studies educator who will use Land of Liberty: The History of the United States in the upcoming school year.

How?

To request a seat in one of the half-day sessions, complete the registration form by June 15.

While the professional learning opportunity is free of charge, participants or their systems will be responsible for any additional costs, including stipends, travel, meals, etc. Seats are limited and will be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis.
