Teacher Guide

Bayou Bridges Louisiana Social Studies, Grade K

Introduction

ABOUT THIS UNIT

The Big Idea

Rules and laws help us be responsible members of the community. Symbols represent the ideas and cultures of our state and country.

People are members of communities at the school, local, state, national, and international levels. Rules and laws help people living in communities by showing them what they can and cannot do to ensure that everyone is safe. Different leaders are responsible for making different rules and laws. School leaders make rules for school communities, while local governments make rules and laws for people living in a town, city, or parish.

Communities also have symbols that represent different ideas, beliefs, and values. They help community members understand their relationship to the community and to each other.

WHAT TEACHERS NEED TO KNOW

Each chapter of the Teacher Guide is accompanied by a brief What Teachers Need to Know document that provides background information related to the chapter content. The background information will summarize the chapter content and provide some additional details or explanation. These documents are not meant to be complete histories but rather memory refreshers to help provide context for what students are learning. For fuller, more detailed explanations, see the list of recommended books in this Introduction.

To find the What Teachers Need to Know documents, look for the link to download the Bayou Bridges Online Resources at the beginning of each chapter.

UNIT RESOURCES

Teacher Components

Being Part of a Community Teacher Guide—This Teacher Guide includes a general unit introduction, followed by specific instructional guidance. Primary Focus Objectives, Core Vocabulary, a lesson introduction, and the Student Book text to be read aloud—in the form of actual replicated Student Book pages—are included for each chapter. The Read Aloud sections of the Student Book are divided into segments so that the teacher can pause and discuss each part of the Read Aloud with students. It is important to discuss the images that accompany the text with the students, too.

The instructional guidance for each chapter also includes SUPPORT notes, a Check for Understanding, and, when appropriate, Additional Activities—such as virtual field trips, short film clips, literature activities, and art activities—that may be used to reinforce students’ understanding of the content. These Additional Activities are intended to provide choices for teachers and should be used selectively.

A Culminating Activity, Chapter Assessments, Performance Task Assessment, and Student Activity Pages are included at the end of this Teacher Guide in Teacher Resources, beginning on page 71. The Activity Pages are numbered to correspond with the chapter for recommended use and also indicate the recommended order for use. For example, AP 1.1 is a letter to family designed to be used at the start of the unit.

- » The Chapter Assessments test knowledge of each chapter, using a standard testing format. The teacher reads multiple-choice questions or fill-in-the-blank statements aloud, and students are then asked to answer these questions by circling a picture representing the correct response on the Chapter Assessment Student Answer Sheet.
- » The Culminating Activity provides students an opportunity to review unit content knowledge prior to the Performance Task Assessment.
- » The Performance Task Assessment allows students to apply and demonstrate the knowledge learned during the unit by drawing and talking about images representing key content.
- » The Activity Pages are designed to reinforce and extend content taught in specific chapters. The Teacher Guide lessons provide clear direction as to when to use specific Activity Pages. Teachers will need to make sufficient copies of the Activity Pages they choose to use for all students in their class.

Being Part of a Community Timeline Card Slide Deck—sixteen individual images depicting the main ideas related to being part of a community. In addition to an image, each card contains a caption, a chapter number, and the Framing Question, which outlines the focus of the chapter. The Teacher Guide will prompt you, chapter by chapter, as to which card(s) to display. The Timeline Cards will be a powerful learning tool, enabling you and your students to track important themes from the unit.

Use this link to download the Bayou Bridges Online Resources for this unit, where the specific link to the Timeline Card Slide Deck may be found:

<https://www.coreknowledge.org/bayou-bridges-online-resources/>

You may wish to print the Timeline Cards to create a physical gallery in your classroom. To do so, you will need to identify available wall space in your classroom on which you can post the Timeline Cards over the course of the unit. The timeline may be oriented either vertically or horizontally, even wrapping around corners and multiple walls—whatever works best in your classroom setting. Be creative; some teachers hang a clothesline so that the cards can be attached with clothespins!

Student Component

The Being Part of a Community Student Book includes five chapters, intended to be read aloud by the teacher as the students look at images on each page.

As you will note when you examine the Student Book, minimal text is included on each page. Instead, colorful photos and engaging illustrations dominate the Student Book pages. The design of the Student Book in this way is intentional because students in Kindergarten–Grade 2 are just learning to read. At these grade levels, students are learning how to decode written words, so the complexity and amount of text that these young students can actually read is quite limited.

While some advanced students may be able to read words on a given page of the Student Book, as a general rule, students should not be expected or asked to read the text on the Student Book pages aloud. The text in the Student Book is there so that teachers and parents can read it when sharing the Student Book with students.

The intent of the Grades K–2 Bayou Bridges units is to build students’ understanding and knowledge of social studies. It is for this very reason that in Bayou Bridges Grades K–2, the content knowledge of each lesson is delivered to students using a teacher Read Aloud, accompanied by detailed images. Cognitive science research has clearly documented the fact that students’ listening comprehension far surpasses their reading comprehension well into the late elementary and early middle school grades. Said another way, students are able to understand and grasp far more complex ideas and texts by hearing them read aloud than they would ever be able to comprehend by reading to themselves.

USING THE TEACHER GUIDE

Pacing

The Being Part of a Community unit is one of four social studies units in the Grade K Bayou Bridges curriculum series that we encourage teachers to use over the course of the school year. A total of forty days has been allocated to the Being Part of a Community unit. We recommend that you do not exceed this number of instructional days to ensure that you have sufficient instructional time to complete all Grade K units.

At the end of this Introduction, you will find a Sample Pacing Guide that provides guidance as to how you might select and use the various resources in this unit during the allotted time. However, there are many options and ways that you may choose to individualize this unit for your students, based on their interests and needs, so we have also provided you with a blank pacing guide that you may use to reflect the activity choices and pacing for your class. If you plan to create a customized pacing guide for your class, we strongly recommend that you preview this entire unit and create your pacing guide before teaching the first chapter.

Reading Aloud

Within each Read Aloud, Core Vocabulary words appear in boldface color (like this). You may sometimes wish to preview one or two of these vocabulary words before a segment of the Read Aloud. In most instances, however, it may be more effective to pause and explain the meanings of the words as they are encountered when reading aloud.

It is important to note that students at this grade level are not expected to give definitions of the Core Vocabulary words. Rather, the intent is for the teacher to model the use of Core Vocabulary in the Read Aloud and in discussions about the Read Aloud to expose students to challenging, domain-specific vocabulary. If students hear these words used in context by the teacher over the entire unit, they will gain an increasingly nuanced understanding of these words. With support and encouragement from the teacher, students may even begin to use these same words in their own oral discussions of the unit.

Interspersed throughout the lessons, you will note instances in which instructional guidance is included. This guidance may call the teacher’s attention to Core Vocabulary and idiomatic or figurative language that may be confusing and therefore require explanation. In other instances, Supports may direct the teacher to call attention to specific aspects of an image—as shown on a page in the Student Book. And, in some instances, a Challenge, usually a more demanding task or question, may be included for teachers’ optional use.

You will also notice within the Read Aloud segments that the Teacher Guide directs you to pause occasionally to ask questions about what students have just heard. By using this carefully scaffolded approach to reading aloud and discussing a portion of the content a bit at a time, you will be able to observe and ensure that all students understand what they have heard before you proceed to the next section of the Read Aloud.

Picture This

During the reading of each chapter, pause periodically to check student comprehension. One quick and easy way to do this is to have students describe what they see in their minds as you read a particular paragraph. Students who struggle to identify images may need a bit more support.

Turn and Talk

You will also notice specific instances in the Read Aloud portion of the lesson designated as Turn and Talk opportunities. During these times, teachers should direct students to turn and talk to a partner to discuss specific things. These types of discussion opportunities will allow students to more fully engage with the content and will bring to life the topics and events being discussed.

Framing Questions and Core Vocabulary

At the beginning of each Read Aloud segment in the Teacher Guide, you will find a Framing Question. The answer to each Framing Question is included as part of the Read Aloud in each chapter of the Student Book. At the end of each Read Aloud segment, you will be prompted to formally re-ask the Framing Question for students to discuss during the Check for Understanding. Key vocabulary, phrases, and idioms are also identified in each lesson of the Teacher Guide.

What Teachers Need to Know

For background information, download the Bayou Bridges Online Resource “About Rules and Laws”:

<https://www.coreknowledge.org/bayou-bridges-online-resources/>

THE CORE LESSON

Introduce Being Part of a Community and Chapter 1: “Rules and Laws”

Review the topics that students have already studied in Bayou Bridges. Explain that so far, they have learned about geography, or maps and places, and history, or people who lived long ago and events that happened long ago. They have learned about wants and needs, goods and services, and the various jobs that people do.

Tell students that now they are going to learn about communities—how people live and work together peacefully and how our communities are represented by different symbols.

Distribute copies of the Student Book to the class. Ask students to look at the cover and describe what they see. Help them connect what they see to actions and institutions that help people live and work together.

Chapter 1: “Rules and Laws”

Ask students to turn to page 2 of the Student Book and look at the image as you read aloud. Tell them that the title of this chapter is “Rules and Laws.”

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that a community is a group of people who share something or have something in common. These people might all live in the same area, or they might all speak the same language.

SUPPORT—Help students understand that people belong to many communities. Draw a small circle on the board or chart paper. Label it “Class.” Draw a larger circle around it. Label it “School.” Continue drawing larger circles, demonstrating how everyone in the small classroom community is also a member of the larger school, city, parish, state, and national communities.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that rules tell people how they should act. They tell people what they must do and what they must not do.

SUPPORT—Have students look at the image on this page. Ask: What rules are the students learning about in the picture? How do you know? (Traffic rules: Stop at red lights and stop signs. The picture shows the students playing with cars on a model of a street. The street has stop signs. One student is pointing to a stoplight.) (K.3)

Ask students the following question:

LITERAL—Why do we have rules? (K.10)

- » We have rules to know how to act in our community.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 3 as you read aloud.

We have rules for many reasons. One reason is safety. Rules can stop us from getting hurt. For example, only one person on the slide at a time keeps students safe on the playground.

What other playground rules can you think of?

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that safety means being protected from danger or from getting hurt.

SUPPORT—Point out the image of the slide on the page. Ask: What are some other rules for using a slide? (Possible answer: Go up the steps and down the slide.)

SUPPORT—Invite volunteers to share other playground rules they know. (Possible answers: No pushing. Share toys and take turns. One person at a time on a swing. Do not jump from the swings. Never stand in front of or behind a swing someone is using.)

Ask students the following question:

LITERAL—What is one reason we have rules? (K.10, K.8.b)

- » One reason we have rules is for safety. Rules can keep us from getting hurt.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 4 as you read aloud.

SUPPORT—Remind students that they learned about symbols when they learned about maps. A symbol is something that stands for something else. The color red is a symbol. What does it stand for? (stop) Where else do students see the color red as a symbol of “stop”? (stop signs) What color stands for “go”? (green) (K.4)

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—What rule do drivers follow at traffic lights? (K.10)

» Stop at red traffic lights.

EVALUATIVE—Why do we have this rule? (K.10, K.8.b)

» We have this rule to keep everyone on the road safe.

Now ask students to look at the images on page 5 as you read aloud.

Another reason for rules is to make sure things are fair. When we play games, rules make sure everyone has a fair chance.

There are rules in sports, too.

Following the rules means that everyone can enjoy the sport and stay safe.

SUPPORT—Invite volunteers to share sports rules that they know. (Possible responses: wear protective equipment, play fair, help others who are hurt) Ask them to identify the difference between a rule about how to play a game and a rule about making sure everyone enjoys the game. (Possible answers: In soccer, not touching the ball with your hands is a rule about how to play; helping others if they fall during a game is a rule about how to help everyone enjoy the game.)

Ask students the following question:

EVALUATIVE—Why do we have rules when we play games? (K.8)

- » We have rules when we play games to make sure everyone has a fair chance.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 6 as you read aloud.

Rules also give people freedom. There are rules in the United States that allow you to think for yourself and tell people your own ideas.

People in the United States are also free to practice any religion they want. The country has rules that stop others from taking away these important freedoms.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that freedom means being able to do or say what you want. It also means being able to make choices about how you live your life.

SUPPORT—Explain that being able to tell people your own ideas is called “freedom of speech.” But while everyone has the freedom to tell their ideas, everyone also has the freedom to not listen.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that a religion is the beliefs that people have about the world and its purpose. It often includes worship of one or more gods and beliefs about right and wrong.

SUPPORT—Explain that being free to practice any religion is called “freedom of religion.” It also includes the freedom to not practice any religion at all.

Ask students the following questions:

EVALUATIVE—How do rules give us freedom? (K.10)

- » Rules stop others from taking away freedoms.

LITERAL—What freedoms do people in the United States have? (K.10)

- » People in the United States have the freedom to think for themselves and share their ideas. People also have the freedom to practice any religion they want.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 7 as you read aloud.

These are some rules to follow every day:

1. Take turns and share. Everyone has a chance to join in when we take turns.
2. Be respectful. We can use kind words—even when we lose or disagree! It’s also important to respect other people’s things.
3. Be responsible. There are many ways to be responsible. One way to be responsible is by doing your chores or classroom jobs. Another way is by taking care of your belongings.

4. Be honest. Telling the truth is important. It is one of many ways that we build trust in our community.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that when a person is respectful to another, they are treating that person like their thoughts and feelings are important.

SUPPORT—Invite volunteers to share examples of kind and respectful things to say. (Possible responses: you first, please, thank you, may I...?, I'm sorry, excuse me)

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that being responsible means making good choices and accepting the consequences when you make a bad choice.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that being honest means telling the truth and not lying.

SUPPORT—Explain that it is important to be honest, but it is also important to be kind. It might be honest to say, “I think your shirt is ugly,” but that is not a kind thing to say. Discuss with students kind ways to express honest criticism or disagreement.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that having trust in someone means to count on them to be responsible—to tell the truth, to do what they say they will do, to be helpful when they are needed, and so on. When people trust each other, they feel connected as parts of the same community.

Ask students the following questions:

EVALUATIVE—Why should we take turns and share? (K.8)

- Invite students to share what they remember about what is shown on the card.
- Review and discuss the Framing Question: “Why do we have rules and laws?”

CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING: FRAMING QUESTION

TURN AND TALK—Why do we have rules and laws?

THE CORE LESSON

Introduce “Making Rules”

Review what students heard about rules in the previous chapter. Remind them that different places have different rules. The rules for the classroom are different from the rules for the soccer field. Now students are going to learn about the different ways rules are made.

Framing Question

How does a community work together to make rules?

Core Vocabulary

principal custodian accidents laws

Chapter 2: “Making Rules”

Distribute copies of the Student Book. Ask students to turn to page 8 of the Student Book and look at the image as you read aloud. Tell students that the title of this chapter is “Making Rules.”

CHAPTER

Making Rules

Different people make rules for different parts of the community. Teachers make the rules for their classrooms. They decide what rules will keep the classroom safe and fair.

These students are lining up and keeping their hands to themselves. These rules will keep everyone safe. What rules keep you safe at school?

SUPPORT—Have students look at the image on the page. Point out how the children are lining up and keeping their hands to themselves. Ask: What other rule do you think the students in this picture are following? How do you know? (Possible answers: The students are waiting quietly for directions. They are facing forward and looking at the teacher.) (K.3)

SUPPORT—Invite volunteers to share examples of rules that keep them safe at school. (Possible answers: Walk in the classroom and hallways. Listen quietly when someone else is speaking. Be careful with scissors and other sharp objects.) (K.8)

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—Who makes the rules for the classroom? (K.9)

» Teachers make the rules for the classroom.

EVALUATIVE—How do teachers decide what rules are needed? (K.8, K.9, K.10)

- » Teachers make rules that are needed to keep things fair and to keep everyone safe.

INFERENTIAL—What might happen if you do not follow classroom rules? (K.8.b, K.10)

- » If you do not follow classroom rules, you could get in trouble. If you are being unsafe, you or someone else could get hurt.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 9 as you read aloud.

SUPPORT—Remind students that being respectful means treating other people in a way that shows that their thoughts and feelings are important.

SUPPORT—Invite volunteers to share examples of rules that help them learn. (Possible answers: using kind words and disagreeing respectfully, trying your best, being on time, being prepared for class) (K.8)

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—What is another classroom rule that helps us learn? (K.8)

- » The rule to listen while others are speaking helps us learn.

EVALUATIVE—How does a rule to raise hands before talking help us be respectful of others?

- » Raising hands before talking stops people from interrupting so everyone can listen to and learn from whoever is talking. Raising hands and waiting to be called on gives everyone a fair chance to have a turn to talk.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 10 as you read aloud.

SUPPORT—Point out the word respect on the page. Explain that this word and the word respectful have similar meanings. When you respect someone, you think their ideas and feelings are important. When you are respectful of someone, you show your feelings by treating their ideas and feelings as important. The suffix, or ending letters, -ful often means full of. So when you are respectful, you are full of respect.

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—Who makes the rules at home? (K.9)

- » The adults we live with make the rules at home.

EVALUATIVE—Why is cleaning up your toys an important rule? (K.8, K.8.a, K.8.c, K.10)

Now ask students to look at the image on page 12 as you read aloud.

School custodians have an important job. They take care of the school building. One of the custodian's jobs is to make sure the school is clean. A clean school keeps us safe and healthy.

12

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that a custodian takes care of a building and sometimes the land around it. Sometimes a custodian is called a janitor.

SUPPORT—Identify the school custodian(s) for students.

SUPPORT—Invite volunteers to share rules that keep us safe and healthy. (Possible answers: Wash your hands after you use the bathroom. Cover your mouth when you cough or sneeze.) (K.10)

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—How does the custodian help keep the school safe and healthy? (K.9)

- » The custodian helps keep the school safe and healthy by making sure it is clean.

INFERENTIAL—Adults in the community help us solve problems. What problems can the custodian help us solve? (K.9)

- » Possible answer: The custodian can help us solve problems by fixing things that are broken or by cleaning up spills.

INFERENTIAL—What rules for students help the custodian do their job? (K.9)

- » Possible answers: Put trash in the trash bins. Don't throw things in the classroom.

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—Leaders like principals and teachers and officials like firefighters and custodians help a community to solve problems. Who else can help a community to solve problems? (K.11)

» Anyone can. The people in a community can work together to solve problems.

INFERENTIAL—If there is a lot of trash in a park, how can people work together to solve this problem? (K.11)

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—What should members of a community do when it comes to laws? (K.8.b)

- » Members of a community should follow its laws.

Remind students that they are part of many communities: a city or town, a state, and a country. Have students say the name of each of their communities. Each of those communities has its own government. Our country has a government. The state of Louisiana has a government. And each parish and city or town has a government. Parish and city or town governments are called local governments. In this chapter, students will hear about those local governments.

Framing Question

What does a local government do?

Core Vocabulary

government voting elections parish president mayor city council

Chapter 3: “Local Government”

Distribute copies of the Student Book. Ask students to turn to page 17 of the Student Book and look at the image as you read aloud. Tell students that the title of this chapter is “Local Government.”

- » We fly the American flag on Independence Day because they are both symbols of our country's freedom.

Now ask students to look at the images on page 31 as you read aloud.

We also fly the American flag on Veterans Day and Memorial Day. The flag helps us remember the people who have fought for our country's freedom.

On Juneteenth, we celebrate the freedom of African Americans in the United States. One symbol of this holiday is the Juneteenth flag. It has the same colors as the American flag. The small star is a symbol of Texas and represents where Juneteenth started. The starburst represents the future of freedom.

31

SUPPORT—Remind students that they heard about Veterans Day and Memorial Day in Unit 2, Understanding the Past. Explain that a veteran is someone who served in the military, and that Veterans Day is celebrated on November 11 to honor veterans. Memorial Day is celebrated on the last Monday of May to honor people who lost their lives serving our country.

SUPPORT—Point out that the first image shows decorations that are the same colors as the American flag: red, white, and blue. Explain that those three colors together—especially when they are arranged in stars and stripes—are another symbol of the United States.

SUPPORT—Remind students that they learned about Juneteenth in Unit 2, Understanding the Past. Explain that Juneteenth is celebrated on June 19 each year. It celebrates the day that enslaved African American people in Texas learned they were free. Ask: What else does Juneteenth celebrate? (It is also a celebration of African American culture and traditions.) (K.4, K.4.d)

SUPPORT—Remind students that they learned the word future in Unit 2. Help them recall that it means time that has not happened yet.

Ask students the following questions:

EVALUATIVE—Why do we fly the American flag on Veterans Day and Memorial Day? (K.4, K.4.a, K.4.d)

- » Flying the American flag on Veterans Day and Memorial Day helps us remember the people who have fought for our country’s freedom.

LITERAL—What does the small star on the Juneteenth flag represent? (K.4, K.4.d)

- » The small star on the Juneteenth flag is a symbol of Texas and represents where Juneteenth started.

LITERAL—What does the starburst on the Juneteenth flag represent? (K.4, K.4.d)

- » The starburst on the Juneteenth flag represents the future of freedom.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 32 as you read aloud.

What are some other holiday symbols in the United States? We celebrate Thanksgiving each year in November. One symbol of Thanksgiving is the cornucopia. It is also called the horn of plenty. It represents having plenty of food from the harvest and being thankful for it.

What other Thanksgiving symbols can you think of?

32

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that a cornucopia is a basket shaped like a horn. Show students an image from the Internet of a cornucopia, calling attention to the basket’s shape. Help students find the cornucopia in the image on page 32.

SUPPORT—Invite volunteers to share other symbols of Thanksgiving. (Possible answers: turkey, pumpkins and gourds, pie, family and friends)

Ask students the following question:

LITERAL—What does the cornucopia represent? (K.4)

- » The cornucopia represents having plenty of food from the harvest and being thankful for it.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 33 as you read aloud.

Note: Not everyone in the United States celebrates Christmas. When discussing the holiday, be sensitive to any students who might not observe it. You may wish to invite students to share other holidays they celebrate or observe in December.

SUPPORT—Explain that colors can be symbols of countries and holidays. Have students look at the image on the page. Ask: What colors represent the Christmas holiday? (red and green) What parts of the image helped you with your answer? (There are many red decorations on the green tree.) (K.3)

Ask students the following question:

LITERAL—What do Christmas trees represent? (K.4.d)

- » Christmas trees represent a tradition brought to the United States by people from Europe.

Ask students to look at the images on page 34.

Tell students that these images show the American flag, an important symbol of the United States.

Guide students to the Then image. Explain that this shows the American flag a long time ago, when the United States first began.

Guide students to the Now image. Explain that this shows the American flag today.

Count the stars in the Then flag. (thirteen) Explain that when the United States began, it had only thirteen states. As more states joined the country, more stars were added to the flag. The Now flag has fifty stars for fifty states. Count the stripes on both flags. Explain that there are thirteen stripes to represent the original thirteen states.

Note: You may wish to connect the flags to the Then and Now maps in Unit 1, Exploring Our World.

Have students compare the two images.

Ask students the following questions:

EVALUATIVE—What is similar or alike in the images? (K.3, K.4, K.4.a)

- » Both flags are red, white, and blue. Both flags have white stars on a blue background and thirteen stripes.

EVALUATIVE—What is different in the images? (K.3, K.4, K.4.a)

- » The Then flag has fewer stars than the Now flag.

EVALUATIVE—What do the flags tell us about how our country has changed over time? (K.3, K.4, K.4.a)

- » The flags tell us that the United States has gotten bigger since we became a country.

Timeline Card Slide Deck

- Show students the Chapter 4 Timeline Cards. Read and discuss the captions.
- Invite students to share what they remember about the ideas on the cards.
- Review and discuss the Framing Question: “What symbols stand for the United States?”

CHECK FOR UNDERSTANDING: FRAMING QUESTION

TURN AND TALK—What symbols stand for the United States?

- » Buildings like the White House and the U.S. Capitol are symbols of the United States. The bald eagle is a symbol of the strength and freedom of our country. The American flag is a symbol of our country’s independence and helps us remember the people who fought for our country’s freedom. We say the Pledge of Allegiance to promise to stay true to our country. “The Star-Spangled Banner” is about the importance of our flag in the past. People like George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. are also symbols of our country.

Chapter 5: “Symbols of Louisiana”

Distribute copies of the Student Book. Ask students to turn to page 35 of the Student Book and look at the image as you read aloud. Tell students that the title of this chapter is “Symbols of Louisiana.”

SUPPORT—Remind students that traditions are ways of doing things from the past that we still do today.

Note: Students may recall learning about traditions in Unit 2, Understanding the Past.

SUPPORT—Explain that this building is St. Louis Cathedral. It is located in Jackson Square. The building and the square are symbols of New Orleans. The statue in the square shows Andrew Jackson, who helped save New Orleans in a battle long, long ago.

Ask students the following question:

LITERAL—What do the symbols of Louisiana represent? (K.4, K.5)

» The symbols of Louisiana represent the ideas, animals, and traditions of the state.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 36 as you read aloud.

The state flag is a symbol of Louisiana. It has three words that represent the values of Louisiana. It also shows a mother pelican and three young pelicans.

Pelicans are very important to Louisiana. Louisiana is known as the Pelican State!

36

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that values are important beliefs and ideas that guide the way we behave.

SUPPORT—Read each word on the flag aloud. Explain that union means bringing many things together to make one. Explain that justice means what is fair. Explain that confidence means believing in yourself.

Ask students the following question:

LITERAL—What is shown on the Louisiana state flag? (K.4, K.4.a)

- » The Louisiana state flag has words that are important to the state. It also has a mother pelican and three young pelicans.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 37 as you read aloud.

SUPPORT—Have students look at the image of pelicans. Explain that they use their long bills to scoop fish out of the water to feed themselves and their young. Ask: What does this photo tell us about how pelicans live? (Possible response: This photo shows that pelicans live together near water and share their resources.) What Louisiana values are they showing? (Possible response: The pelicans are sharing and caring for their young.) (K.3)

Ask students the following question:

LITERAL—What is the Louisiana state bird? (K.4, K.4.a)

» The Louisiana state bird is the brown pelican.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 38 as you read aloud.

Louisiana has many waterways. Its southern coast is surrounded by the Gulf of Mexico. Brown pelicans live along the coast. These water birds are also a symbol of Louisiana's geography.

38

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that waterways are bodies of water that people can travel on with boats. Gulfs, lakes, rivers, and large streams are all waterways.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that a coast is an area of land next to the ocean. Another word for coast is shore.

Note: Students may recall learning about waterways and the coast in Unit 1, Exploring Our World.

 SUPPORT—Display the map of the United States. Point out Louisiana on the map. Then trace the state's southern coast, noting its proximity to the Gulf of Mexico.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that geography is the study of Earth's features and where they are.

Ask students the following question:

EVALUATIVE—Why do pelicans represent Louisiana's geography? (K.4, K.4.a)

» Louisiana has many bodies of water where pelicans live.

Now ask students to look at the images on page 39 as you read aloud.

When people think about New Orleans, they often think about Mardi Gras. Mardi Gras is a state holiday. It is also a symbol of New Orleans and Louisiana.

People celebrate Mardi Gras in many ways. During Mardi Gras, people display or wear beautiful masks. They build large floats that are used in parades.

39

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that floats are large structures that people decorate and ride on during parades. Some floats are built on a truck. Others are built on a trailer and pulled by a truck.

SUPPORT—Remind students that they read about Mardi Gras in Unit 2, Understanding the Past. Invite volunteers to share what they remember. (The words Mardi Gras mean “Fat Tuesday”; Mardi Gras marks the beginning of Lent, which is for many Christians a time to pray and fast; Mardi Gras is celebrated with parades, and people wear costumes and eat king cake.) (K.4, K.4.d)

SUPPORT—Have students look at the top image on the page. Have them point to something purple, something yellow, and something green in the image. Explain that these three colors together are symbols of Mardi Gras. Students will learn more about these colors on the next page.

SUPPORT—Have students look at the bottom image on the page. Ask: What do you notice about the float? (The float has many decorations and bright colors.) What does this tell you about Mardi Gras parades? (Possible answer: The parades are very festive and fun to watch.) (K.3)

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—What city is Mardi Gras a symbol of? (K.4, K.4.d, K.5)

- » Mardi Gras is a symbol of New Orleans.

LITERAL—How do people celebrate Mardi Gras? (K.4, K.4.d, K.5)

- » People celebrate Mardi Gras by displaying or wearing beautiful masks, building floats, and holding parades.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 40 as you read aloud.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that faith means believing in something, even if you cannot see or touch it.

CORE VOCABULARY—Remind students that justice means what is fair.

CORE VOCABULARY—Explain that power means to be in control of yourself or others.

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—What do people on Mardi Gras parade floats do with beads? (K.4, K.4.d, K.5)

» People on Mardi Gras parade floats throw bead necklaces.

LITERAL—What colors are many Mardi Gras beads? What do the colors represent? (K.4, K.4.d, K.5)

» Many Mardi Gras beads are green, purple, and gold. The colors represent faith, justice, and power.

Now ask students to look at the images on page 41 as you read aloud.

Another Mardi Gras tradition is eating king cake. Like throwing beads, king cake is also a symbol of Mardi Gras and New Orleans.

Jambalaya is a popular dish that represents Louisiana. Gumbo is the state food!

Tamales were brought to Louisiana by people from Mexico. They are a symbol of Louisiana's diverse culture.

41

SUPPORT—Remind students what they heard in Unit 2, Understanding the Past, about the king cake tradition. (A small toy is hidden inside the king cake. Whoever finds it is king or queen for a day.)

SUPPORT—Remind students that jambalaya and gumbo are foods that come from Cajun and Creole cultures. They both use rice and vegetables and often include local seafood or meat.

SUPPORT—Explain that tamales are made from cornmeal and filled with meat or beans. Before cooking, they are wrapped in corn husks. To eat a tamale, you unwrap it and take it out of the husk.

SUPPORT—Remind students that a cause is why something happened. An effect is what happens. Ask: What cause and effect can you find on this page? (Cause: People from Mexico brought tamales to Louisiana. Effect: Tamales are a symbol of Louisiana’s diverse culture.) (K.6)

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—What is the state food of Louisiana? (K.5, K.5.c)

» Gumbo is the state food of Louisiana.

LITERAL—Which culture did tamales originate from? (K.5, K.5.c)

» Tamales were brought to Louisiana by people from Mexico.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 42 as you read aloud.

SUPPORT—Explain that the photo shows crawfish (which some students may know as crayfish, crawdads, or mudbugs). Louisiana catches more crawfish than any other place in the United States or on Earth. This is why it’s called the crawfish capital of the world. Explain that after crawfish are cooked, people eat the insides; they do not eat the shells.

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—What is étouffée? (K.5, K.5.c)

» Étouffée is a stew made from crawfish.

INFERENTIAL—How does étouffée represent Louisiana? (K.5, K.5.c)

» Étouffée uses an ingredient, crawfish, that is important to Louisiana.

Now ask students to look at the image on page 43 as you read aloud.

In addition to its food, Louisiana's culture and traditions also serve as symbols. For example, many people think of jazz when they think of New Orleans. This music is a symbol of the city. Cajun and zydeco music represent the state, too.

43

SUPPORT—Remind students what they heard about jazz, Cajun, and zydeco music in Unit 2, Understanding the Past. (Jazz music was first made by African American musicians in New Orleans and uses many different styles. Cajun music was brought by Acadian people to Louisiana and uses fiddles and accordions. Zydeco music has sounds similar to Cajun music and includes styles from African American and Creole culture.)

Ask students the following questions:

LITERAL—What kind of music is a symbol of New Orleans? (K.5, K.5.a)

- » Jazz music is a symbol of New Orleans.

LITERAL—What kinds of music also represent Louisiana? (K.5, K.5.a)

Culminating Activity: Being Part of a Community

Classroom Mural

Materials Needed: sufficient copies of coloring pages; crayons, markers, or colored pencils; butcher-block paper; tape, glue, or stapler

Background for Teachers: Use this link to download the Bayou Bridges Online Resources for this unit, where the links to suggested coloring pages may be found:

<https://www.coreknowledge.org/bayou-bridges-online-resources/>

Organize the class into small groups. Distribute the coloring pages evenly across the groups. Have each group color its assigned pages.

Hang a piece of butcher-block paper on the wall. Work with students to affix their colored pages to the butcher-block paper to create a collage.

Once the collage is completed, invite each group of students to tell the rest of the class about the images they colored. What do the images represent?

You may wish to schedule the presentations for a separate day and invite parents.

Performance Task: Being Part of a Community

Materials Needed: four blank 5" x 8" index cards per student; pencils; assorted thin-tipped colored markers; individual student copies of the Being Part of a Community Student Book

Teacher Directions: In this unit, students learned about being part of a community. They learned that rules and laws help us know how to behave in a community. They learned why and how rules and laws are made, including the job of local government. They also learned that symbols represent the ideas and cultures of Louisiana and the United States.

Have students reflect back on what they learned during this unit by flipping through the pages of the Student Book. Tell students to imagine they are explaining to someone from another country what it means to be a part of a community here in Louisiana and the United States. They will share the sights, sounds, and smells of being part of a community by creating four different postcards on 5" x 8" index cards. Remind students that postcards are like condensed versions of large travel posters. The postcards should show the most important or most interesting details about being part of a community. Students should identify in their postcards the most important and exciting aspects of being part of a community that they have learned about.

Have students draw images of being part of a community on one side of each card and dictate a brief message about its meaning for the other side.

Note: We suggest that you allocate two instructional periods for the completion of this performance-based assessment. Students will work at different paces. The teacher should circulate throughout the room and be available to discuss each card and take dictation as individual students finish each postcard.

Prompt each student to talk about their drawing by saying, "Tell me about what you drew and what it tells about being part of a community." It is not necessary for the teacher to write verbatim what the student says but rather to capture bullet points that can later be used with the Performance Task Scoring Rubric that follows.

Performance Task Scoring Rubric

Note to Teacher: Students should be evaluated on the basis of their postcard drawings, along with what they say that they have drawn and why, using the rubric.

Above Average	Response is accurate and detailed. Student demonstrates strong understanding of being part of a community, identifying four of the following details in drawing and/or dictation: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Rules and laws tell us how to behave in a community.• Rules and laws keep people safe and protect their freedoms.• People in communities work together to make rules and solve problems.• Local governments make rules for a community.• Local government leaders include parish presidents, mayors, and city councils.• Symbols like the bald eagle and the American flag represent ideas of our country.• Symbols like the state flag, the brown pelican, and jazz music represent ideas and the culture of Louisiana.

Letter to Family

During the next few weeks, as part of our study of the Bayou Bridges Louisiana Social Studies Curriculum, your child will be learning about the purpose and importance of rules and laws, as well as symbols of Louisiana and the United States.

In this unit, students will describe the importance of rules and laws and why they are made; identify leaders in local government and their roles; and explain how symbols—including flags, animals, people, holidays, and traditions—represent the ideas and cultures of Louisiana and the United States.

As part of their exploration, students will also learn a little bit about the consequences of breaking rules and laws and the role of adults in the community when this happens. This information is presented in a factual, age-appropriate way rather than in a manner that suggests the value or correctness of any particular culture or group. The goal is to foster understanding of and respect for people and communities that may be different from those with which students are familiar.

Sometimes students have questions regarding how the information they are learning relates to themselves and their own experiences. In such instances, we will encourage each student to discuss such topics with you. We recognize that the best place to find answers to those types of questions is with your family and the adults at home.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Making New Laws

People share ideas.

A leader suggests a new law.

Leaders talk about the law.

Leaders vote on the law.

The idea becomes a law.
