Video and Supporting Documentation

- Record up to 15 continuous minutes of instruction, leading PD, or a staff meeting
- Clearly state at the beginning of the video, or in the submission description, the type of leadership being demonstrated (PD, or teaching), the topic of the meeting/PD or the lesson objective, and a description of the people in the room (i.e., teachers, community members, family members, toddlers, and how many)
- Demonstrate leadership and instructional skills reflective of what you provide to your staff or children for their growth and development
- Ensure that audio of teacher and children is clearly heard throughout the video Videos should be an authentic capture of your normal classroom day, professional development session, or staff meeting. Please do not feel compelled to create a “perfect” video. The LDOE wants to see how your children or staff experience your leadership every day.
