When building the course in your LMS, all documents associated with the performance task must be considered when making changes.

Thanks to our partners at Cambiar, we've added examples for Unit 1 and Unit 2 so that students can actively participate in this course whether in-person or on the computer, and teachers can grasp an understanding of how to adapt their lessons to virtual and hybrid modalities. The tips included, provide suggestions for both synchronous and asynchronous learning , alternative activities for virtual environments and a virtual student notebook.
