

2020-2021 Teacher Leader Advisor Application

Applications must be submitted through this form by 5 p.m. on Friday, August 14, 2020. Incomplete applications will not be considered. You are strongly encouraged to review the qualifications checklist, preview the questions, and prepare your answers before logging on to the form.

Scope of Work:

The specific responsibilities of Teacher Leader Advisors will vary depending on the content area and time of year but will include the following types of activities:

- Evaluating the quality of publisher-submitted curricular materials
- Creating and revising high-quality instructional tasks and resources in math, science, and STEM
- Updating the ELA Guidebooks and adapting them for Students with Significant Cognitive Disabilities
- Scoring and annotating student work samples
- Developing and facilitating professional development sessions for fellow Louisiana educators
- Raising awareness among Louisiana educators of the tools and resources available in the Louisiana Teacher Toolbox

Becoming a Teacher Leader Advisor requires educators to commit to completing additional work outside of their regular duties:

- Average five (5) hours per week (varies from week to week)
- Virtual training

Applications are currently open for the following areas:

- Early Childhood Education (birth-five) Instructional Materials Review
- Foundational Skills/Reading Intervention Instructional Materials Review
- K-12 ELA Content Support and ELA Instructional Materials Review
- K-12 Math Instructional Materials Review
- K-12 Science Content Support and Science Instructional Materials Review
- K-12 STEM Content Support
- K-12 Students with Significant Cognitive Disabilities

Who should apply?

There is a specific need for expert educators in the areas of early literacy, intervention specialist, Early Childhood (Birth to 3 and pre-K), and K-12 science and STEM. We also need K-12 teachers across ELA and math content areas and librarians. Special education teachers who specialize in these areas are also encouraged to apply.

A welcome kick-off meeting will take place virtually September 1-2 after school hours, and virtual training will be scheduled in early September for each workgroup.
