

Computer Science Teacher Leader Advisors

WHAT PROJECTS MIGHT A COMPUTER SCIENCE TEACHER LEADER ADVISOR COMPLETE?

Computer Science Content Teacher Leader Advisors (TLAs) are a group of exceptional educators from across Louisiana who play an influential role in supporting schools and systems in broadening computer science education. The TLAs will use their robust knowledge of teaching and learning to create exciting new resources and tools for K-12 educators across the state. Current projects for CS Content TLAs include

- developing and reviewing computer science resources to support and prepare teachers in the implementation of the K-12 Louisiana Student Standards for Computer Science;
- creating resources to support the implementation of computer science as outlined in the Louisiana K-12 Computer Science Education Plan; and
- developing and facilitating professional development sessions.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Any current Louisiana educator with 3+ years of experience is eligible; you do not need to be a school-site teacher leader to apply. We need educators who are passionate about ensuring that high-quality materials are available to Louisiana students and have

- a desire for growth opportunities; and
- the capacity to devote time towards additional projects outside of the normal work day.

WHAT COMMITMENTS ARE REQUIRED?

- Dedicate 5 to 10 hours per week for assignments outside of normal employment hours
- Training and check-ins with the workgroup manager and potentially other TLAs

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF BEING A TEACHER LEADER ADVISOR?

- Compensation for completed project deliverables (as assigned) which range from $50 to $500 each with total TLA contracts ranging from $1,500 to $5,000
- Training and feedback by Louisiana Department of Education staff members throughout the year
- Deep understanding of the tools and resources the Department provides to educators
- The opportunity to network and collaborate with peer educators and Department leadership
