

	I can Statements	Reading & Responding
Speaking & Listening
Language
Writing

Main Idea and Key Details Split-Page Note-taking

The Main Idea is what the passage, article, or chapter is mostly about.
The details are facts or examples that tell the reader more information about the main idea.

Main Idea

-

-

-

-

Key Details

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

-

Main Idea and Key Details Split-Page Note-taking

The Main Idea is what the passage, article, or chapter is mostly about.
The details are facts or examples that tell the reader more information about the main idea.

Main Idea

Key Details

Main Idea and Key Details Split-Page Note-taking

The Main Idea is what the passage, article, or chapter is mostly about.
The details are facts or examples that tell the reader more information about the main idea.

"Spain Expects France's Deal" and "Buying Louisiana"

Main Idea

Key Details

--	--

Main Idea and Key Details Split-Page Note-taking

The Main Idea is what the passage, article, or chapter is mostly about.
The details are facts or examples that tell the reader more information about the main idea.

“Robert Livingston Goes to France” and “Jefferson Tries to Make a Deal”

Main Idea

Key Details

--	--

Main Idea and Key Details Split-Page Note-taking

The Main Idea is what the passage, article, or chapter is mostly about.
The details are facts or examples that tell the reader more information about the main idea.

"Napoleon Does Not Sell" , "Congress Avoids War" , and
"Napoleon Does Not Attack the British"

Main Idea

Key Details

--	--

Main Idea and Key Details Split-Page Note-taking

The Main Idea is what the passage, article, or chapter is mostly about.
The details are facts or examples that tell the reader more information about the main idea.

“Napoleon Decides to Sell” and “Livingston and Monroe Make the LA Purchase”

Main Idea	Key Details

Signal Words

Compare/
Contrast

Cause/
Effect

Temporal/
Sequence

Spatial/Location

--	--	--	--

Main Idea and Key Details Split-Page Note-taking

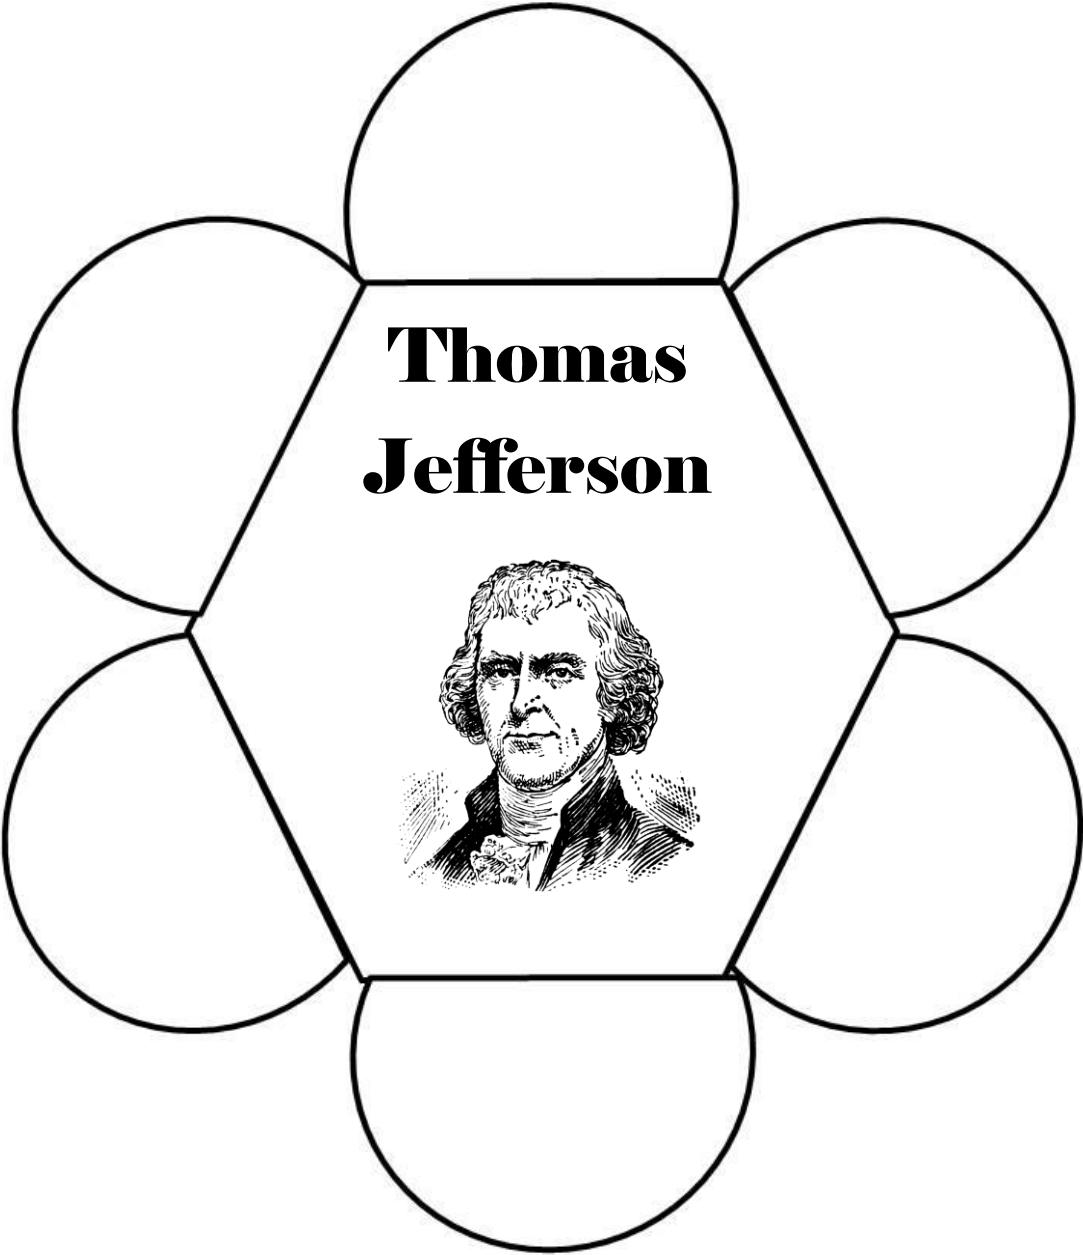

The Main Idea is what the passage, article, or chapter is mostly about. The details are facts or examples that tell the reader more information about the main idea.

"A Nation Waiting to Grow"

Main Idea	Key Details

An American in 1800 is ...

Robert Livingston

Robert Livingston

Napoleon

James Monroe

What's the Message of

_____?

Describe the Main Characters

How Did Their Actions Affect the Story?

My Summary

“Settlers Move West” & Many Stay in America

Thomas Jefferson	Napoleon	An American Pioneer
New Thinking

Somebody

Wanted

But

So

Then

Evidence/ Example	Explanation/ Elaboration

Who Where Lewis and Clark?

What is a revolution?

What is a democracy?

What is an empire?

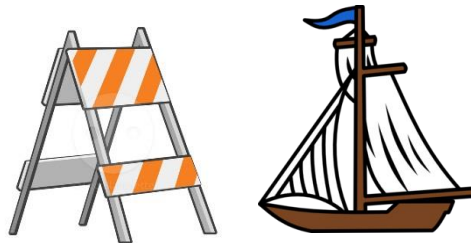

What is an outcry?

What is a blockade?

What is yellow fever?

What is a colonist?

©2014 notin.com

MARRI

What is a pioneer?

What is a pelt?

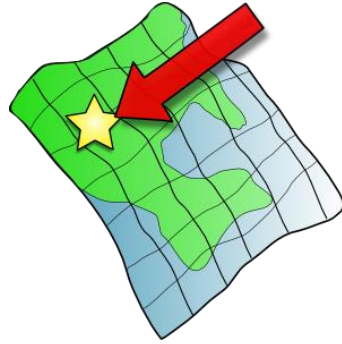

What is a port?

What is a treaty?

What is a territory?

What is a flatboat?

