School Avoidance Parents Course: A Tier 2 & Tier 3 Intervention for Parents

Our course is meticulously crafted to equip your school's frontline staff with the knowledge and skills to tackle school avoidance effectively.

It's designed to reduce absenteeism and facilitate the reintegration of out-of-school students into the educational fold while preemptively addressing potential new instances.

Our professional development program delves deep into the complexities of school attendance issues, offering insights to discern the underlying causes of absenteeism for each student and to deploy impactful interventions.

By arming your staff with evidence-based strategies, they'll gain the confidence to support their students effectively. Our clients have already seen a marked return of students to the classroom, and we're eager to extend the same success to your school district.

School Avoidance Parents Course: A Tier 2 & Tier 3 Intervention for Parents
