

ELA Guidebooks Virtual/Hybrid Lesson Planning and Pacing Guidance

Plan

		lum guidance be adjusted to account for unfinished learning and scheduling? How will you ensure EL students and students with disabilities have access to instruction?
		Implementing Continuous Core Instruction .
		Determine digital materials needed for interfacing with students, delivering instruction, and collecting and assessing student work.
		Plan how physical learning materials (e.g., manipulatives, printed material) will be distributed to and accessed by students.
		Establish and share instructional norms with students and parents.
_		Louisiana's ELA Guidebook Distance Learning Strong Start Instructional Materials Guidance
	ч	Engage in intentional curriculum planning such as the building and/or revision of curriculum maps, pacing plans, calendars, and lesson plans.
	П	Review Guidebook example: Example of Adapting ELA Guidebooks Lesson.
	_	Identify the most vulnerable students to recognize and prioritize their needs. Review Implementing Assessment and Individual Plans.
		Review Supporting ELs During Distance Learning.
		Review Supporting Students with Disabilities Guidance Overview.
	_	Use the Lesson Adaptation Planning Tool to help modify and plan for each lesson.
Implemen	t
•
How will you monitor and adjust curriculum, assessment plans, tools, and materials to support instruction?
	Review	Instructional Best Practices for a Virtual Setting.
		Develop procedures for:
		☐ Introduction of new content
		Independent practice; assessment of proficiency ☐ Synchronous Lessons and Asynchronous Lessons
		☐ Continued purposeful interaction with teacher and peers
Communic	eate
How will w	ou monit	or and adjust curriculum, assessment plans, tools, and materials to support instruction?
•		Providing High-Quality Feedback in a Virtual Setting.
_		Establish a clear process for students to receive and respond to feedback in a timely manner.
	_	Establish a clear process for students to receive and respond to reedback in a timely mainler.
NEW: LDO	E ELA G	uidebooks Resource Bank
The Department has created a form to collect ELA Guidebook resources from teachers to share freely across the state.
Examples can be uploaded directly into the form. These resources will be compiled, vetted, and shared by grade-level.
Please consider sharing examples of:
Unit/Lesson Slide Decks
		t/Lesson Planning Document(s)
	∪	t/ LESSON Flamming Document(3)

Unit/Lesson Scope and Sequence ExamplesStudent and/or Parent Facing Resources