SPED Fellow Design

Key Components of SPED Fellow

SPED Fellow Academy is designed to increase the influence of novice SPED leaders within the education field, reduce attrition, and close educational gaps for students with disabilities.

This is done by providing development for fellows in 3 key areas:

- Sequence of Study
- Mentor-coaching
- Executive Learning Project (ELP)

Mentor-Coaches

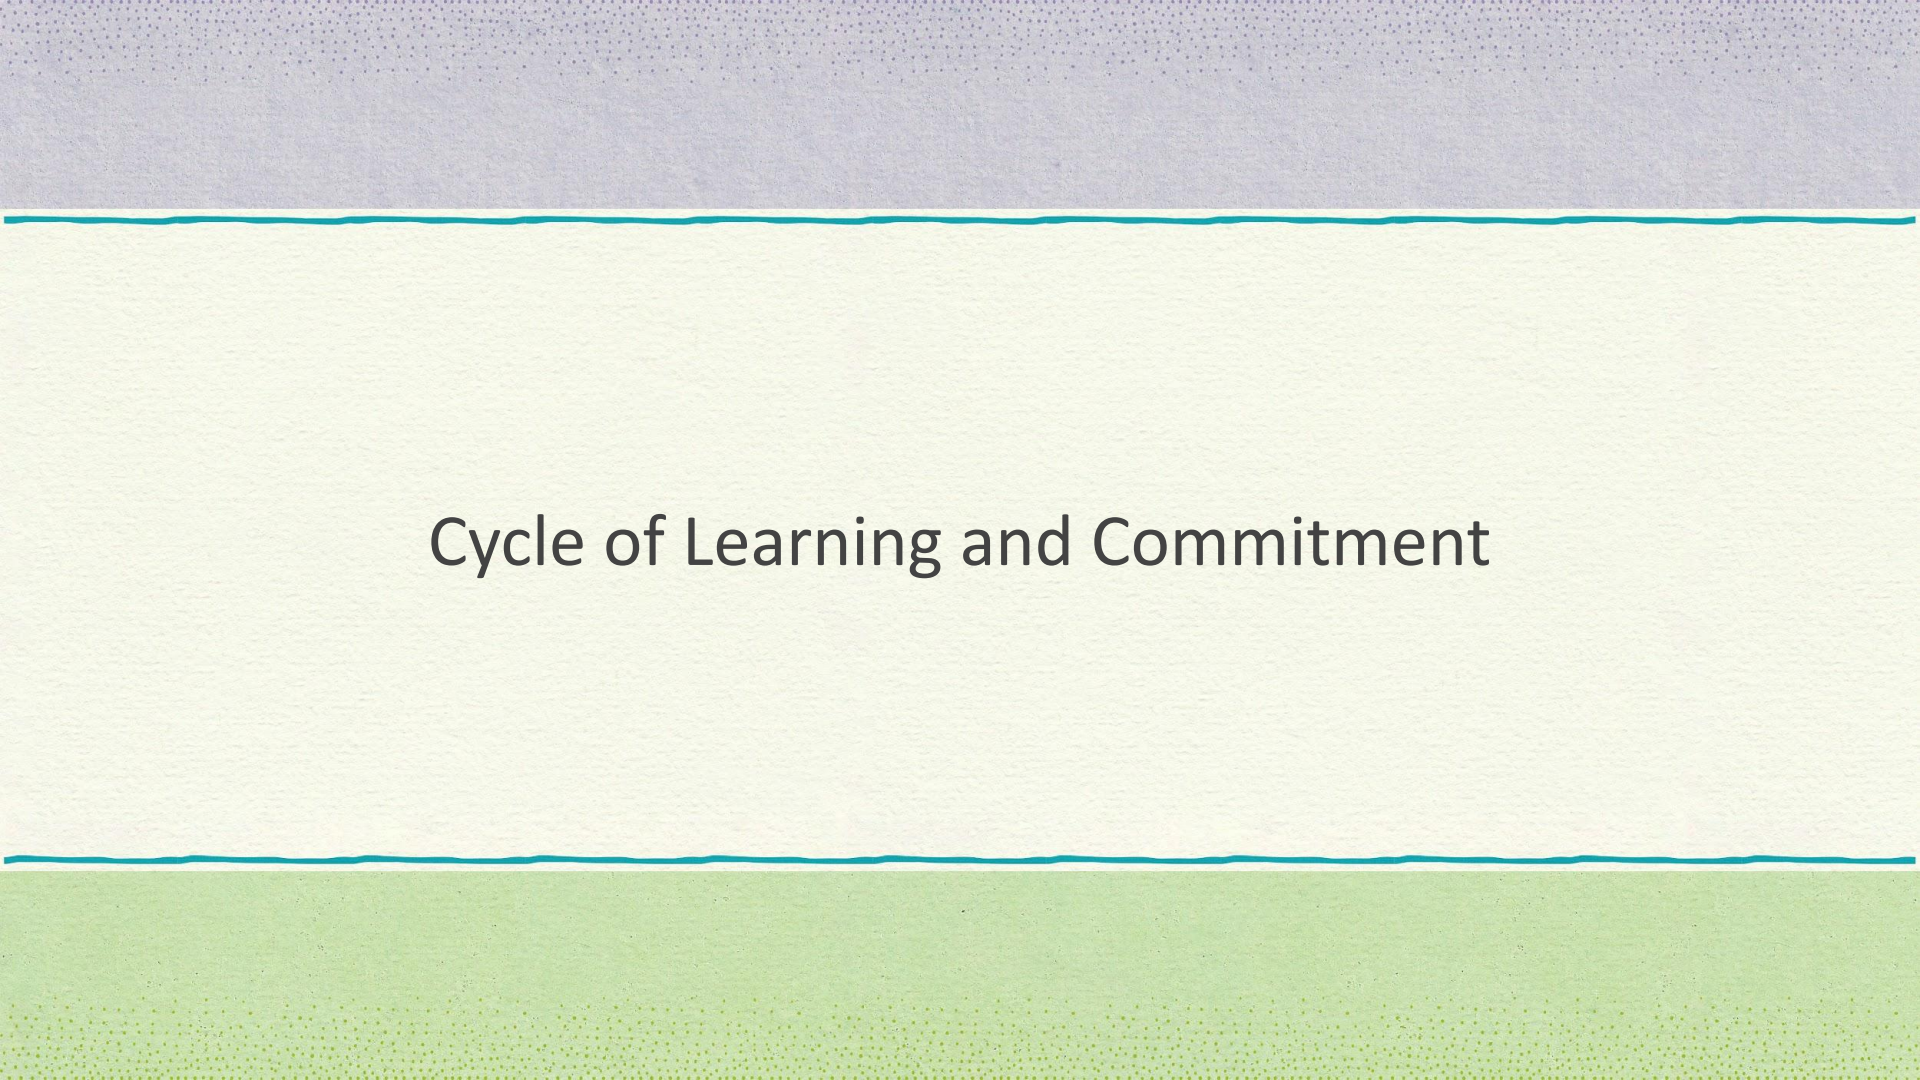

Mentor-coaches are experts in the field of special education who are deeply invested in fellow professional growth. Mentor-coaches will help to support fellow professional growth by

- providing as needed check-ins,
- delivering targeted resources and support based on development,
- providing expert guidance, feedback, and ongoing review of Executive Learning Projects,
- providing guidance and support in problem solving challenges and
- facilitating self-reflection and growth.

Executive Learning Project

The Executive Learning Project is a year long project which includes 3 core components:

- Problem of practice: a problem fellows have identified as a key lever for improving outcomes for students with disabilities within their district.
- Theory of Action: a framework developed to address the problem of practice.
- Project Plan: a detailed plan developed to implement their theory of action.

Cycle of Learning and Commitment

Cycle of Learning

Each month fellows engage in a cycle of learning that includes three key elements that ensure knowledge and skills are gained and applied:

- Pre-Session learning
- Session learning
- Post-Session learning

Fellow Commitment

SPED Fellow is a yearlong development program which includes:

- 10 full day in person sessions,
- 5 virtual sessions,
- Regular coaching check-ins with a mentor-coach, and
- Completion of all pre and post session learning.

The image shows a screenshot of the SPED Fellow Academy Application form. At the top, there is a decorative banner with a stylized illustration of two hands reaching towards each other, one holding a flower. Below the banner, the title "SPED Fellow Academy Application" is displayed. A thank-you message follows: "Thank you for your interest in the SPED Fellow! We look forward to reviewing your application." A note explains that the application is split into two sections: the first asks for information about the applicant and their experience as a novice special education leader, and the second asks for questions about leadership and professional growth. A red asterisk indicates that certain fields are required. The form contains four input fields, each with a label and a "Your answer" placeholder: "First and Last Name *", "Cell Phone Number *", "Email Address *", and "School System *".
