

Materials Access Guide

To implement an ELA Guidebooks 3-5 (2022) unit, teachers need:

- the units;
- the texts;
- the materials;
- the reference guides;
- the teaching guides; and
- additional materials, such as learning logs, sticky notes, and highlighters.

Materials	Description	Access
Units	The units include section diagnostics, a culminating task, and daily lessons with student-friendly slides, teaching notes, and look-fors. The curriculum guide is an overview of the program and is available on the Louisiana Curriculum Hub homepage.	Louisiana Curriculum Hub Curriculum Guide
Texts	Units require all texts listed in the unit text list. No texts listed are optional. There are two ways to determine the needed texts: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Text Access: Each unit has a Text Access page that identifies the needed texts. Teachers should access this page to access texts for a single classroom.2. Master Text List: Districts and principals should use the Master Text List to make purchase decisions for multiple classrooms.	The Text Access link is located on the Unit Overview page of each unit. The Master Text List is located on the ELA Guidebooks page of Louisiana Believes.

Materials Access Guide

	Texts labeled as “Purchase (Book)” can be purchased through the American Reading Company portal. Texts labeled as “Unit Reader” can be purchased through the XanEdu portal.
Materials	All units require students to have access to the unit materials and the TWR materials. There are two ways to access the materials: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Materials Link and TWR Materials Link: Each unit has a Materials link and a TWR Materials link. Teachers should use this option to download and make copies for a single classroom. 2. XanEdu: Districts and principals should use this option to purchase printed copies of the materials for multiple classrooms. 	The Materials link and TWR Materials link are located on the Unit Overview page of each unit on Louisiana Curriculum Hub. XanEdu
Reference Guides	The reference guides can be accessed two different ways. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Reference Guides in Materials Link: The reference guides can be found in the Materials link for each unit. Teachers should use this option to download and make copies for a single classroom. 2. XanEdu: Reference guides are available for purchase from XanEdu. 	Louisiana Curriculum Hub XanEdu
Teaching Guides	Teaching guides are available as a downloadable resource on Louisiana Curriculum Hub. Teaching guides are available for purchase through XanEdu and are optional.	Louisiana Curriculum Hub XanEdu

Materials Access Guide

To implement an ELA Guidebooks 9-12 (2020) unit, teachers need:

- the units;
- the texts;
- the materials;
- the reference guides;
- the teaching guides; and
- additional materials, such as learning logs, sticky notes, and highlighters.

Materials	Description	Access
Units	The units include section diagnostics, a culminating task, and daily lessons with student-friendly slides, teaching notes, and look-fors. The curriculum guide is an overview of the program and is available on the Louisiana Curriculum Hub homepage.	Louisiana Curriculum Hub Curriculum Guide
Texts	Units require all texts listed in the unit text list. No texts listed are optional. There are two ways to determine the needed texts: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Text Access: Each unit has a Text Access page that identifies the needed texts. Teachers should use this page to determine how to access texts for a single classroom.2. Master Text List: Districts and principals should use the Master Text List to make purchase decisions for multiple classrooms.	The Text Access link is located on the Unit Overview page of each unit. The Master Text List is located on the ELA Guidebooks page of Louisiana Believes.

Materials Access Guide

	Texts labeled as “Purchase (Book)” can be purchased through the American Reading Company portal. Texts labeled as “Unit Reader” can be purchased through the XanEdu portal.
Materials	All units require students to have access to the unit materials and the TWR materials. There are two ways to access the materials: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Materials Link: Each unit has a Materials link. Teachers should use this option to download and make copies for a single classroom. 2. XanEdu: Districts and principals should use this option to purchase printed copies of the materials for multiple classrooms. 	The Materials link is located on the Unit Overview page of each unit on Louisiana Curriculum Hub. XanEdu
Reference Guides	The reference guides can be accessed two different ways. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Reference Guides in Materials Link: The reference guides can be found in the Materials link for each unit. Teachers should use this option to download and make copies for a single classroom. 2. XanEdu: Reference guides are available for purchase from XanEdu. 	Louisiana Curriculum Hub XanEdu
Teaching Guides	Teaching guides are available as a downloadable resource on Louisiana Curriculum Hub. Teaching guides are available for purchase through XanEdu and are optional.	Louisiana Curriculum Hub XanEdu

Materials Access Guide

To implement an ELA Guidebooks 3-8 (2018) unit or 9-12 (2016) unit, teachers need:

- the units;
- the texts;
- the handouts; and
- additional materials, such as learning logs, sticky notes, and highlighters.

Materials	Description	Access
Units	The units include section diagnostics, a culminating task, and daily lessons with student-friendly slides, teaching notes, and example student look-fors. The overview guide is an overview of the program and is available in the Get Started folder for each ELA Guidebook unit on Louisiana Curriculum Hub and on the Get Started page on Imagine Learning (formerly LearnZillion).	Louisiana Curriculum Hub Imagine Learning (formerly LearnZillion)
Texts	Units require all texts listed in the unit text list. No texts listed are optional. There are two ways to determine the needed texts: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Text Access: Each unit has a Text Access page that identifies the needed texts. Teachers should use this page to determine how to access texts for a single classroom. 2. Louisiana Guidebooks Purchasing Information: Districts and principals should use the Louisiana Guidebooks Purchasing Information to make purchase decisions for multiple classrooms. 	3-8: The most up-to-date Text Access page is located in the Unit folder of the zip file on Louisiana Curriculum Hub and Imagine Learning (formerly LearnZillion). 9-12: The Text Access page is located on the Unit Overview page for each unit on Imagine

Materials Access Guide

	Texts labeled as “Purchase (Book)” can be purchased through the American Reading Company portal. Texts labeled as “Unit Reader” can be purchased through the XanEdu portal.	Learning (formerly LearnZillion). Louisiana Guidebooks Purchasing Information
Materials	All units require students to have access to the unit materials and the TWR materials. There are two ways to access the materials: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Materials Link: Each lesson has a Materials folder or tab. Teachers should use this option to download and make copies for a single classroom. 2. XanEdu: Districts and principals should use this option to purchase printed copies of the materials for multiple classrooms. 	3-8: The most up-to-date materials are located in the Additional Materials folders in the zip file on Louisiana Curriculum Hub and Imagine Learning (formerly LearnZillion). 9-12: Materials are located on the Materials tab for each lesson on Imagine Learning (formerly LearnZillion). XanEdu
Reference Guides	The reference guides can be accessed two different ways. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 3. Reference Guides in Materials Link: The reference guides can be found in the Materials link for each unit. Teachers should use this option to download and make copies for a single classroom. 4. XanEdu: Reference guides are available for purchase from XanEdu. 	Louisiana Curriculum Hub XanEdu

Materials Access Guide

Teaching Guides	Teaching guides are available as a downloadable resource on Louisiana Curriculum Hub . Teaching guides are available for purchase through XanEdu and are optional.	Louisiana Curriculum Hub XanEdu
-----------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------